

National Coarse Fishing Federation of Ireland

Tubertini Team Ireland Head to Fish'O'Mania

Sunday the 17th of July will see the first ever Fish'O'Mania Home Internationals sponsored by PartyPoker.com and televised by Sky Sports and Tubertini Team Ireland will be there to represent Ireland's Coarse Anglers.

Team Ireland manager Mark Theedom will lead out his highly experienced team at the famous Cudmore Fishery, Stoke-on-Trent, England with 2008 World Championship Silver Medallist Willy Wheeler and one time All Ireland Champion, Willy will be joined by the highly experienced pair of Jack Tisdall and Vincent Walsh both Jack and Vincent have represented Ireland on World, European and club levels over a combined 30 occasions, Vincent will be on this year's team to compete for at the World Angling Games in Italy.

In addition to Willy, Jack and Vincent international 'new comer' David Burleigh will complete the team, David is a rising star in Coarse Angling in Ireland and the talented young angler is also on this year's World Championship squad after making it through the National Qualifiers.

Tubertini Team Ireland will be featuring in a live 5 hour international rules match organised by Matchroom Sports against the other home nations of Wales, Scotland and England which will be shown on Sky Sports 2, and this will be the first time in several years where all four nations will compete in such an event.

The National Coarse Fishing Federation of Ireland would like to wish the team all the best and we are encouraging everyone to tune in to Sky Sports 2 this weekend to keep an eye on our lads.